About the Author

Author Susan Cain graduated from Princeton University and Harvard Law School before turning her talents to law, negotiations and teaching. Since then, she has succeeded in turning her private studies, business acumen and life experiences into a fascinating and powerful book. Although the book took Cain seven years to research and write, she explains that it is the culmination of everything she's learned since becoming an adult. And despite being a self-proclaimed introvert, Cain has been committed to publicizing the ideas in her book through interviews, TED Talks and by founding an organization called The Quiet Revolution.
