Where Pigeons Don't Fly follows the story of Fahd, a young boy growing up in Saudi Arabia. Fahd's childhood is overshadowed by his father's involvement in the attack on the Grand Mosque in Mecca. Now an artist and critic, the adult Fahd finds that, both in work and in love, he is at loggerheads with repressive cultural and religious norms. When he and his girlfriend are detained by the "virtue" police, Fahd contemplates a life of self-imposed exile in a remote corner of Britain, rather than remaining somewhere he doesn't feel he belongs.

Vickie Miller:

As a university student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Where Pigeons Don't Fly can make you really feel more interested to read.
