Being dumped by Mike was a blessing in disguise, Jessie just didn't know it. She was distraught, drowning in her own tears whilst everything she had worked for hung in the balance. The 21-year-old student was just weeks away from her exams, after which she was due to embark on a year-long work placement. Unable to face the world alone, it took the persuasion of her best friend, Lisa, to make her realise she was in danger of throwing it all away for an undeserving man. Nobody could have predicted how much both of their lives would change over the course of the next year, especially not Jessie. When she meets the man of her dreams, her lightning attraction, Jessie's life seems perfect for the first time ever. The question is, does perfection have space for psycho ex-boyfriends?
