“Jill, will you go out with me?”

Those were the words he said to me two months ago. Those were the words I said yes to.

Bryan didn't need to convince me to date him, I was already interested, and it was a decision I didn't regret.

But when he invited me to his room for a private conversation, and told me how he truly feels about me, time froze my heart.

Should I take the plunge, or...
