**** Stand Alone*****

The young widowed Jess Shoemaker is the mother of one pre-teen boy, Joe. It's not an easy lot but she makes it work. She's found a way to work from home and support them. Counting her pennies is her favorite trick. When she is forced to accept she must buy a piece of furniture and get some home repairs, Jess finds herself in what she has been told a bargain basement of a furniture store. What finds there -- rather, who she finds there -- was well worth the trip.

Luke Miller is the owner of an Amish furniture store. His heart is touched by the sweet and maybe a little tired young woman who has come to his store. He decides she needs more than shelves. She needs love and kindness. Jess and Joe invite him into their home and Luke invites them into his heart.
