This is extreme examination of fiction books. We take excerpts from popular novels (one page in length) from various chapters and we read them, trying to understand the writer's voice, writing structure and more. Harry Potter, book two will be our first attempt, so bear with us. Overtime, we'll have a clearer definition of how we do our analysis. This book will have notes ever now and then. Enjoy! Oh, and, if you were wondering, the main purpose of this is to learn how to write better fiction.
