To marjhal George Herrick, ) of Salem, Essex, j You are in their majesties' names hereby required to convey the above named to the gaol at Salem.---Fail not. JohnHathorn, affistants Dated Salem, April 22, 1692. The occasion of Bishop's being cried out of, was, he being at an examination in Salem, when at the inn an afflicted Indian was very unruly, whom he undertook, and so managed him, that he was very orderly; after which, in riding home, in company of him and other accusers, the Indian fell into a fit, and clapping hold with his teeth on the back of the man that rode before him, thereby held himself upon the horse; but said Bistiop striking him with his stick, the Indian soon recovered, and promised he would do so no more; to which Bishop replied, that he doubted not but he could cure them all, with more to the same effect. Immediately after he was parted from them, he was cried out of, &c. May 14, 1692. Sir William Phips arrived with commission from their majesties to be governor, pursuant to the new charter, which he now brought with him, the ancient charter having been vacated by king Charles and king James, (by which they had a power not only to make their own laws, but also to choose their own governor and officers) and the country for some years was put under an absolute commission-government, till the Revolution, at which time, though more than two thirds of the people were for reassuming their ancient government, (to which they had encouragement by his then royal highness's proclamation) yet some that might have been better employed (in another station) made it their business (by printing, as well as speaking...
