AUDIO, VIDEO, DISCO is a socially-anxious, coming-of-age novella that asks, "What leads a young adult to alienate himself from his peers, and are we allowed to laugh at him?" Life for twenty-something Ernest Scarliffe has not been all that hot. After a terrible breakup and a breakdown of his nuclear family, he wakes up one morning in a mental hospital. Now that he's out, he'll have to kick his drinking habit, change his ways to get the girl, and prove he's a new person to his lost friend.
