If Charlie had known that ranchers came in such a delicious package, she'd have visited her aunt a long time ago. Jason's last girlfriend went back to the city, leaving him suspicious of anyone who didn't grow up on the prairies. Sparks fly between the two, and to make matters even more interesting, their romance echoes an enduring love from the past. Can Charlie and Jason put aside their differences in time to find romance – both for themselves and for the long-ago lovers?
