100% chance of failure, with hope in the forecast

The year is 2020, and the world is on the brink of economic collapse. Can a group of "whiz kids" led by an absent-minded professor and a 24 year old girl save us?

A "shock and awe" financial thriller

The crash of the stock market has created a rippling effect of disastrous proportions. Banks have failed, people are rioting in the streets of the cities, which are on fire. Rolling blackouts have given way to entire system failures. Columbia Professor Harry Mason, advisor to U.S. presidents and the Treasury Department, has gathered his dream team of "whiz kids," the brightest and the best graduate students in Economics, for a special laboratory class. Their mission: to save the world. But is it too late?

What others are saying

Fiction author Kenneth Eade and non-fiction author Gordon L. Eade team up to give you a meta-fiction thriller designed to show how to survive the next crash.
