Turning Good People Into Top Talent: Keys for Achieving Your Vision Faster in the New Economy

Robert B. Moore

The leadership of organizations must change in order to find, develop and retain the top talent needed to maximize the opportunities the new global economy offers.

This book clearly explores the essence of effective leadership: Coach-based managing through a continuous cycle of awareness, discovery, application and accountability leads to mastery for both teams and individuals, and the commitment required to achieve your vision faster in the new economy.

Turning Good People into Top Talent is filled with unanticipated value...expect more than a value-added experience. Bob Moore, The Effectiveness Coach®, condenses his 30 year focus on effectiveness into seven keys for visionary leaders: accountability in a responsibility-based workplace, organizational vitality, shared values, high performing teams, continuous learning, coach-based management, and talent management.

By using these keys, Bob shows you how to create and maintain a high performance workplace filled with the top talent you want for your organization.
