From Book 1: Meet Oakley, a young girl who was raised by her single father. He always instilled in her to focus and keep her education as a top priority. She is determined not to become another statistic. When her father falls ill and is unable to provide for the family what's a girl to do?

Kiss is Oakley's right hand. The bond they share is like no other. Kiss knows the true meaning of the word struggle. Nothing has ever come easy for her. Being raised in a home where she was told every day she wasn't wanted made her tough. When she finally finds love it's short lived. That tragedy left her in a jam with no money and added to her tough girl demeanor. Day in and day out she hit the block hustling to survive. When push comes to shove its either get down or lay down.

Joining Oakley's brains and the hustlers ambition of Kiss, these two friends become self made. The road to success isn't going to be easy for them and everyone isn't going to be happy.

Love, lies and dirty money create unexpected beefs. Blood will be shed and love will be lost.
