The movie An Affair to Remember has been revered as one of the most romantic movies of all time. It's been remade over and over again. Women cry and weep over the romanticism.

These journal prompts and creative writing ideas correlate with the movie, and instigate thought into what does the movie mean to you and how you interpret quotes and scenes. They are also designed to help you brainstorm what you think about love in your own life.

In the end, will you continue to think it's the most romantic movie or will you change your mind and think it's a hedonistic tale about two people going after only what they want without considering other's feelings. Whatever your viewpoint, you're right!
