From Home to Homeless to Success Carlton N. Young

This is the true story of a father and son surviving the odds of sudden homelessness and hardship. However, it is not only about overcoming homelessness, but it also outlines the secret of how to make changes in all areas of your life and make those changes count. Using words of empowerment and inspiration to help those who are looking to improve their quality of life, the book helps you discover how to make the rest of your life the best of your life. There's a process to change and decision making, and to achieve what you want with the abilities you already have, you must first understand the process. "From Home to Homeless to Success" is a fascinating survival story, as well as a guide to understanding and tapping into your potential, and identifying the obstacles and the enemies that can block your achievement.
