The Martial Arts Delusion James Wallhausen

There are millions of practicing martial artists around the world in our globalised age, yet each is a member of schools separated by concepts such as 'style'. The Martial Arts Delusion presents a modern paradigm of combat and the martial arts based upon a Risk Model, to penetrate through traditional divides. It was once cited that true martial art was about discovering the causes of ignorance. Using scientific principles from such fields as Philosophy, Cybernetics, Psychology and Sociology, The Martial Arts Delusion outlines the factors which obscure truth, and how one may reach the truth of not only the martial arts, but any subject. The path to overcoming the causes of ignorance is essential to become a perfected martial artist, where one must overcome the product of inherited information from small local groups; The Martial Arts Delusion.
