Days in Doubt: A Collection of Panic Poems for the Growing Girl (In You) G.E.S. Bowles

In this volume of raw, self-confessional poems, G.E.S. Bowles inspects and examines the more ugly moments of youthful adulthood with a familiar and unselfconscious, deliberate bluntness. Gripping onto the commonly accepted time of distress, where awkward teenagers find themselves becoming young adults who resemble nothing like what they expected, she touches on identity, gender, self-hate, love and the troubling state of the environment which we are all bearing current witness to.

Poignantly illustrated with a style of morose nostalgia that captures the lethargy of a disillusioned, television-saturated millennial, Days In Doubt takes its reader through the pitfalls and tempestuous highs of introspective yet destructive angst.
