This book addresses a real time spiritual relationship with God like no other. It breaks a mold of assuming that God is either distant or angry with you and the rest of mankind. This book looks at what is really involved in both knowing God experientially on a daily basis and what it means to live that out in real practical ways. It explains the partnership principle of co-ownership of your life now and forever. You are meant to be you, no one else. It challenges the notion of putting people and God into nicely fitting boxes that both limit you and keep you from discovering all your real potential in life. Once you understand that God is your biggest cheerleader and coach and that He leads you by invitation as you also respond to Him by invitation. Then you can begin to see the partnership principles at work.
